oThe Tour

We'll meet at La Moneda in the Plaza de la Constitucion , an iconic place in Santiago and a popular gathering point for many locals. From there, we'll head to the neighbourhood of La Alameda, a place that's popular with locals thanks to its gorgeous architecture and blending of the old and new city. We'll explore an area that's known as the heart and soul of Santiago. Discover sites like the Plaza de Armas and get a feel for what makes this city so great. From there, you'll travel like a local with a ride on the metro and a stop at Mercado Central, starring some of the freshest produce in the country. Wander the aisles and watch how locals shop and bargain for the best deal. Best of all, we're going to eat some typical Chilean dishes. Next, your Santiago tour will lead you to La Vega Central, a local market just on the other side of the Mapocho River. You can find everything you could imagine here, from souvenirs to healing potions. Our Santiago tour is then going onwards and upwards , literally! We're taking the cable car to the top of Cerro San Cristobal. At the top, you'll have the best view of the city, so keep that camera handy. We'll finish up our Santiago tour with lunch (we hope you liked the food at the market!) in the beautiful, bohemian Bellavista neighbourhood. This hipster district is home to up-and-coming restaurants, making it the perfect place to stop for a delicious Chilean meal. We'll dine at a beloved local restaurant before heading back to where we started.
