Sightseeing Information

Lima Discovery

Lima, Peru

Get your hands on the blueprint to modern Peruvian life on this Lima tour that puts you in the shoes of locals. Hit the market, sip a Pisco Sour, pick up a few words of Spanish, and snack on some churros for the ultimate introduction to life in Lima.

Duration of tour: 4 hours

oThe Tour

You'll meet your local guide at the main door of the Bolivar Hotel, and start the tour by learning a few words of Spanish. Your local guide will be pointing out the sights along the streets, from the hidden gems to the Lima's classic tales. You'll dive off the beaten path and make a short stop at San Pedro de Lima Church, an infamous Lima landmark, before heading onwards towards the Central Market. You'll navigate your way through all the various stalls, checking out the fresh produce and learning about the eating habits of the locals. As you move ahead on this historical Lima tour you'll walk through Plaza Bolivar, the perfect place to hear anecdotes about the history of Peru. Visit the breath-taking Monasterio San Francisco, home to huge underground catacombs and a building so rich in history that it was named a UNESCO World Heritage site. After all that learning, it's time to rest your body and give yourself a break with a Pisco Sour in hand! Your local guide will take you to the place where this iconic drink was invented. This Lima tour will come to an end here, where you can continue you on your own exploration of the city, or your local guide will be able to point you in the direction of your accommodation.
