

Sightseeing Information

Devin Castle Tour

Bratislava, Slovakia

Unbelievably close to Bratislava's Old Town, but marvellously secluded from the city, lies one of Slovakia's key historical icons. Devin Castle is depicted on Slovak money and postage stamps, and the word "Devin" is in some way a synonym for things eminently Slovak.

Duration of tour: 3 hours

oThe Tour

These impressive ruins have amazing surroundings, a rich history and are easily reachable from the city centre by car or bus in 20 minutes. On this tour from one point you will see: two countries, two rivers meeting and the ruins of a castle that was blown up by Napoleon's army. For photography lovers this is a place that simply must be added to your collection. Enjoy this remarkable tour with us. you will also taste local wine made with currants and local honey with ginger. We will take you straight to wonderland! The Castle offers one of the best views of its surroundings and one can see all the way to Austria. And what it would be the visit of Devin castle without tasting of currant wines ?
